

HARVESTING JUSTICE

Words and Rhymes for

PALESTINE

Featuring Performances/Poetry by

Sarah Jones

Suheir Hammad

Steve Colman

Betty Shamieh

FRIDAY, SEPT. 27, 2002

Hunter College

PLUS Stories and Video from the New York
Solidarity Movement for a Free Palestine

Also Food, Music, Art and More

Words and Rhymes for PALESTINE

at

Hunter College

Thomas Hunter Hall
Room 105

68th and Lexington
6 train to 68th St

Doors open at 6:00 p.m.

Program begins promptly at 6:30 p.m.

Food will be Provided

For more info call 212.772.4261

The event is a Fundraiser to support the Handala Youth Cultural and Community Center in the Azzeh Refugee Camp in Bethlehem and the International Solidarity Movement's campaign of support for Palestinians during the upcoming olive harvest.

The New York Solidarity Movement for a Free Palestine (NYSMFP) is a predominantly people of color delegation who traveled to Palestine this summer. We realize that our work for social justice and self-determination is most effective when we see the links between our own struggles and those of other disenfranchised communities both within the United States and internationally. We believe that our struggles for self-determination and resistance to imperialism are linked to and aided by the Palestinian fight against occupation.

Sponsored by NYSMFP and SLAM!/USG. For more information, call SLAM at 212.772.4261 or email sabotage@riseup.net.

an evening of poetry
&
politics

